

I am a veteran who is sick of the slander of John Kerry regarding his antiwar activities. Without the addition of VietNam vets to the antiwar movement, we might have been mired in the jungle for years longer, and the wall would be longer, and the POWs would have been beaten and tortured longer. His congressional testimony was not slander of soldiers, as it was the truth, which he was sworn to tell.

Just look at the Abu Graib prison and stories coming out of Iraq of aoldiers ordered to kill
